Upside Resistance Targets

The Fibonacci .618 retracement level of 2654 remains in play as does the gap that is still open at 2664. It's possible that the market could go up tomorrow morning to one of these levels to complete the upward retracement before reversing course lower. On the very short term we remain bearish against January 18 high of 2675. While a move up is possible, it is not mandatory as the risk is to the downside.

We anticipate a move down to below the 1/23 low of 2612.

Wave iii = wave 1 at 2610.

Wave iii = 1.618 of 1 at 2571
