The market accommodated our forecast. From yesterday's report:

"We expect the market to move down tomorrow to 2818-2819 and then continue the uptrend"

The market opened down allowing us to sell our remaining put at a profit. Owning no more puts, we then added to our calls buying two March 25th calls at 4.20. Within a couple of hours we sold one at 6.30, then the other at 8.30. This marks the second day in a row we were able to make money buying and selling both puts and calls in the same day for a net realized gain of $651.56 today
