We want to give everyone parameters for the next two weeks. In the expanding triangle pattern, extending the trend line at the top of the triangle, wave D connects to the tops of the January 2018 high and wave B at:

Week of 4/22: 3011

Week of 4/29: 3014

Week of 5/6: 3016

From the March 27th low, the next wave up will gain equality with the first five wave advance at 2943, which is just 3 points above the all-time high at 2940. Expect a pause once this target is achieved.

We will remain long against the March 27, 2019 low of 2787.
