Announcement: Dale will be out of town with limited to no trading or reports from June 26 – July 2, 2019.

Yesterday's chart above with targets 2935, 2925, 2916
Today's chart below with all three targets achieved

From yesterday's report:

We expect the S&P to correct in this fourth (iv) wave to at least the Fibonacci .382 retracement level of 2935... This fourth wave seems like it may never reach the .382 Fibonacci retracement level of 2935 let alone the .500 and .618 targets."

Today, the S&P not only corrected to the .382 level of 2935 but also the .500 level and to the Fibonacci .618 level with a direct hit on 2916.

Downside targets:

.382 = 2935 achieved

.500 = 2925 achieved

.618 = 2916 achieved

This correction is Fibonacci perfection so we expect it to hold. Support is the wave (i) high of 2897. Confirmation that wave (v) is in play will come with a move above the wave (iii) high of 2964. Our ideal target price for wave (v) is 2973.
