Upside resistance

July 3 high 2995:

Wave D target high during the week of 070819 = 3027.

Then, 3054.

Downside targets for 2nd wave:

.382 retracement at 2964.

.500 retracement at 2954.

.618 retracement at 2944.

Support: June 25th low of 2914.

The S&P opened gap down yesterday and spent the remainder of the day moving sideways. Our target levels for this correction remain unchanged – see charts above. Once complete, this second wave down will give way to a third wave up as the S&P will resume its assault on 3000, then 3027 (this week) and ultimately 3054.

Fibonacci Options Day Trader Report

We made no trades yesterday as we watched our July 8th 2975 puts flirt with in and out of the money action, ultimately closing a mere .95 of one point out of the money as the S&P settled at 2975.95. That will result in a net realized loss of $1,400 today.
