Announcement:

Woodson Wave Report is now Timer Digest's #1 ranked market timing service for the 3 month period ending 071219.

Timer Digest (P.O. BOX 1688, Greenwich, CT. 06836/ 203-629-3503)

First wave down unfolding

Downside targets:

Wave iii = wave i at 2961.

Wave iii = 1.618 of i at 2933.

Support:

Wave ii high of 3006.

Wave D high of 3017.

Yesterday's page 2 chart labeled the rise up as a fourth wave. It looked more like a two than a four. The internal wave structure of the decline from the wave D high to yesterday's low sports nine waves to the downside and thus is wave i down. We corrected the count with the chart above. Our wave count gained validity as wave (iii) of iii unfolded in Fibonacci perfection subdividing into a 1.618 multiple of wave (i) of iii at 2975 right at the close. This enabled us to sell a couple of those July 22nd 2975 puts we bought at break-even (bought at 8.10, sold at 8.20) after they evaporated down to 1.40 earlier in the day. More on that and other trades in our Fibonacci Options Day Trader Report.

Fibonacci Options Day Trader Report:

We were busy today trading in and out of the market nine times, buying two puts three different times for a total of six, and selling eight puts (we carried four over from yesterday) a total of seven different times. All told were made 10 transactions today (see Today's Trades below) for a net realized profit of $1,639 on 24.08% gain.
